About This Game

Get behind the wheel of a racing rally car or a truck and go head to head against other rival AI racers in gorgeous locations, from the hot unforgiving desert, to the icy mountains or volcanic island. Climb hills, race down slopes, speed through obstacles and beat the other AI players. Do you have what it takes to win all races, become first and unlock new locations and vehicles?

Each race earns you points, which you can spend on cars and tracks. Try to collect the most pickups to increase your overall awarded points after each race.

The cars take damage, if you're low on vehicle health your engine will explode. But fear not, harder race tracks have pickups, which will restore your car by 50%. If you're low on health just go through one such pickup and fix your vehicle.

The game features leaderboards for each level, meaning you can compare your time against that of everyone else. Try to get as higher in the rankings as you possibly can.
Be careful of which vehicle you choose for the different tracks. Some cars or trucks are better suited for the given track, while others, even though faster, will not be the best choice. Choose wisely!

A score(in seconds) is posted every time you get a better result in the current track. This means, that each time you complete a lap on a given track your best time on this location is compared to your previous posted time on this track and, if the time is better, a new score is posted on the leaderboard.

Want to climb higher in the leaderboards? Give your car some boost. Upgrade your engine and downforce. This will improve your car's speed, acceleration and grip, meaning you'll take those turns faster, reducing your overall time.

motion sickness after 3 minutes off playtime on the vive with roomscale.
The graphics are good but for me its not playable because i get motion sickness.. From what I've played I have enjoyed the game and I would recommend ARAYA to others who are looking for a new horror game to play. Here is my let's play of ARAYA https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PL-4l-FqPzTC6UPkBMPeeydg3Gja59SNEj. This is the only DLC for TS2019 that I would recommend buying. And that is because this route is unique from all other DLCs. If you have always wanted a subway route or a street car line then this is the DLC for you! Besides this DLC I only buy TSW routes. They are more engaging and honestly the performance is better.. Crimson Room: Decade is the return of the popular flash escape room game: Crimson Room. Returning to the place after 10 years, there are still some secrets unsolved. While plenty of love was given to the flash game, it seems like the same doesn't apply for the recent version.

Graphics:
I love the atmosphere of the game and the details of the items. There are a few problems I have with it, however. One thing is because of the ways items are placed or scattered, it can affect movement. For example, the drawer on the floor and opening the drawer. The delay of closing and opening and picking up moves the character, which I will get into detail on controls. The way some items are hidden, like the bed lump at the beginning and the pencil at the end, makes it very hard to spot. Later on in the game, it seems like some scenes and items were thrown together in haste...literally...

Controls:
ASWD to move, right click to look at the item you're holding, left click to inspect an item, shift to crouch. The controls are slow and delayed. As mentioned in graphics, sometimes the items force you to move to the side or back. Sometimes, you can barely maneuver in the room when stuff is on the floor, which feels like an obstacle course.

Story:
You play as a frenchman, who is investigating the Crimson Room once again while leaving his pregnant wife back at home. The notes hint his relationships with the captain and crew with suspicions of brainwashing and such.

Gameplay:
I hate to say the gameplay is a bit infuriating. As stated before in graphics, some items are hard to find. One instance that I got ticked off was figuring out how to wipe the numbers clean. Well, obviously I have to cut the curtain and put it in the water. Nope. I had to make the safe numbers say that I have to clean it in order to first cut the curtain. Why do we need a prompt for something so obvious? Some cases are the same with other items and actions, which makes the game hard to figure out. Another thing is items spawn in the dark drawer only when the light is shine. It's common sense sometimes to reach out or squint in the dark, but in this case...apparently not. I can understand a flash game...but a 3d game?

Music:
I love the music used throughout in the game, except for the ending them...which I felt it took a sudden turn on the type of song and notes. Otherwise, great music you can get into.

Overall:
I remembered Crimson Room fondly. It was something to play and fool with in spare time and something enjoyable. I was stoked when I found out about Crimson Room: Decade. However, I was disappointed after I played it. While the music was good and it did try to stay close to the original, it just didn't catch up to the present day games. With stiff controls, graphics interfering with movement, and some graphics cheaply made, Crimson Room: Decade should have added a few more years to prepare itself to come back. If there is a good sale (if it's under 4$), I'd say it's worth getting. Otherwise, it's not worth the $10 price tag.

Pros:
-Great music (except for the ending).
-Atmosphere staying true to the original and to present-day games.

???:
-Graphics (some parts are good. some parts are cheap.)

Cons:
-Stiff and slow controls.
-Objects interfere with movement and can get you stuck for a bit sometimes.
-You have to keep inspecting the same thing for some things over and over in order to progress.. The only match three game I've ever played is Bejeweled. Then I saw Spooky Bonus and I knew I had to get it, since I am a fan of Spooky\/Halloween themed games.

It shows inspiration from Bejeweled, but it does not out-right copy it, like other Match three games I've seen being sold on Steam and elsewhere.

Spooky Bonus brings in different mechanics and puzzle pieces that keep the gameplay fresh and interesting, it increases the challenge as your progress. It also brings to you a fantastic art-style and a great soundtrack. You even have a button to change your current desktop wallpaper to the background art of each region of Old Town.

The puzzle boards drop for you, many gold coins and bags of coins that you can pick up and use the coins to purchase things for the house that you own in Old town. The things you can purchase are decoration and will reward you special abilities or bonuses to existing ones. There is also pieces such as silver bullets, crosses, pumpkin bombs, flashlights, and many more that you can use to help you solve each puzzle. It gives you abilities that once used go on a cool-down, and you must earn points to refresh them.

I have nothing negative to say about this game. It's runs perfect, I have encountered zero bugs or glitches, controls and clicking with the mouse are perfect as well.

I did see that there doesn't appear to be any other game modes besides relax or timed, but there is a possibilty that they can be added in the future. This doesn't stop it being a great game for me. Especially, with the amount of levels they give. Well over 50.

Currently you can choose between a nice relax mode, or a more harrowing timed mode, that makes the more challenging puzzles interesting.

It's a perfect game for quick play sessions, or spending a few hours playing it. I highly recommend this!

I think it needs to be more clear on what this game actually is. I didn't know it was only 4 minutes long, a sitting only experience, and for parties. Your short description mentions none of this. I found it to be very short, disappointing, and boring.. NEEDS AUTO PILOT!!!. This kinetic set of illustrations puts a wide grin on my face.
It reminds me of many good memories from my childhood that I have long forgotten, and for that I'm truly grateful.

Banyu Lintar Angin - Little Storm - tells the story of three siblings going about their daily lives. Doing chores, playing together, things like that. There isn't any text involved - just pictures, accompanied by a single light-hearted music that fits really well. The art is simple in style, but they express things clearly, and have lots of details. I had fun staring at all the small things you can find in the illustrations.

The story is short, but sweet. If you have a few minutes to spare, please give this a try.. Very solid tech demo, lots of things to do. Going to have to give it a 6/10 instead of a 9/10 as there was no requirement for waltzing. Plenty of wizardry, though.. this is very good buy the budndle. I know this is a short game but it's definitely worth it. Creepy, scary and maybe funny. I just love the Christmas song. I recommend this game to my friends and you who's reading this review.. This game is... Excellent! More considering from how small Studio SiestA is.
The references to Trouble Witches (Their most popular STG game out there, you should check it out too) are amazing, the bullet and hitbox is awesome, the history is even very cool too.

Now here is the thing that... most people for some... reason... Don't seem to know lol
This game is 4 to 5 buttons, one of them is to make the ship slowdown, if you don't press it, you are at max speed, just remember that when getting the game (So, don't even try to play this on Keyboard unleast you have perfect control and anti ghosting)

As I said before, I really love what this is, just a bit odd you cannot do TATE on it, weird lol.
But everything else is really good, going to check out the new expansion too.. Very polished match-3. Also aliens stole all our gold.. Amazing spatial puzzle game! Money well spent :)

Highly recommended!!!. I Can't even get the parking break released the insert isnt Fing working
